

Hope to see you, your family & friends at the:

Brass and Bells Holiday Concert
December 9 at 3:00 PM
2018 guest performers, The Syracuse Chorale!

Free-will offering to benefit education in Haiti!

The United Church of Fayetteville, 310 E. Genesee St. in Fayetteville, NY, hosts the award-winning Syracuse University Brass Ensemble of 35 accomplished musicians directed by Dr. James Spencer, the UCF Handbell Choir conducted by UCF organist and Director of Music Ministries, Jared Shepard, and special guests for 2018, the Syracuse Chorale, lead by Artistic Director, Dr. José "Peppie" Calvar.

This special afternoon of music will feature: The Holly & the Ivy, Fantasy on Greensleeves, Yule Dance, "Carol of the Bells", Christmas Overture, Emmanuel, Three Kings Swing, The Most Wonderful Time of the Year and Veni Emmanuel. The Brass, Chorale and organ will collaborate on John Rutter's Gloria with bombastic brass and percussion introducing the beautiful choral and organ parts.

The Haiti Educational Mission Partnership (HEMP) is appreciative for the joint efforts of United Church of Fayetteville, the Syracuse University Brass Ensemble and the Syracuse Chorale for this inspiring concert! The church is accessible! Directions can be found on its website www.theucf.org. Besides the free-will offering, guests are encouraged to bring a non-perishable food item for the Fayetteville-Manlius Food Pantry. Thank you in advance for your generous support!

A reception will follow the concert!
